

Hemingway Cabin

I never knew Earnest Hemmingway but I did know his widow Mary and his son Jack. Some of us locals used to gather at Earnest's Mansion in Ketchum Idaho on Thanksgiving afternoon for an impromptu trap shoot off the hill. Earnest spent most of his Ketchum days hunting and fishing in near by Silver Creek. He loved upland game bird hunting as well as duck hunting and there you could do both at the same time with a good dog. During his early days he occasionally occupied a cabin near Trail Creek on the edge of Ketchum. I have spent many evenings with friends at that same cabin and so this premier unit is named for that cabin. The Hemingway Cabin

"Best of all, he loved the fall." - Earnest Hemingway

This unit is roughly 4 ½ Feet wide and 7 ½ Feet long. It will accommodate medium to large dogs, even a pair can share. ( That's Britney to Labs )

STANDARD EQUIPMENT:

These hand crafted accommodations are all about state of the art equipment in a classy package with attention to detail. We make no bones about dog care first and good looks second. We lean toward rustic, original, and handsome.
